

Summary

Nauvoo Comprehensive Plan 2009

Looking Forward While Respecting the Past

The ideas presented in the comprehensive plan are conceptual yet directive. However, the plan is not regulatory. To ensure that local ordinances coincide with the direction of the plan, Nauvoo should review all appropriate local regulations. The city may find changes need to be made to the zoning and subdivision ordinances, or that the creation of new regulations will be necessary in order to meet certain recommendations found within the plan.

Future needs of Nauvoo have been considered in relation to several topics including, but not limited to, economic development, infrastructure, land use and demographics. The plan is based on current and projected information and over time, some of the assumptions may change. It is the responsibility of the city to review the plan on an annual basis and to update the plan at least once every five years.
